

AIA
Tampa Bay

HONOR AWARDS

We are counting on YOU to make a nomination!

Please nominate a deserving Architect, Associate, Allied Member, Contractor or other outstanding member of the A/E/C community for one of the awards below. You must submit a letter of nomination or a nomination form to Dawn@aiatampabay.com. Firm awards and Garcia awards require a submission package. It is okay to nominate yourself or your firm. Nominations will be due on or around September 27th.

The Firm Award is available to a chapter member firm that has for the past five years distinguished itself through; demonstrated consistent leadership and vision; proven leadership in advancing the profession through community service; enhancement of the built environment through design and implementation of works; stewardship of the profession's direction and mentoring of future professionals.

The Bob Levison Award is available to an Architect member of the chapter who, while in good standing for the past 10 years, has demonstrated continuous service above self through distinguished service in two of the three following: Chapter, Community, Profession of Architecture. Awarded bi-annually, even years

The Medal of Honor is the highest award available to an Architect member of the Chapter who, while in good standing for the past 15 years, has demonstrated continuous service above self to the Chapter, Community and the Profession of Architecture in the Most Distinguished manner

The Award of Excellence is available to a non-member of the chapter who, during the past two years, has demonstrated outstanding support to the mission of the chapter, built environment or architectural profession. The intent is that nominees for this award should be a layperson to the profession, however it may be awarded to an Architect, AIA member or not.

The Artisan Award is available to any member of the construction industry that has demonstrated excellence, through personal craftsmanship, or proven responsibility for the work of a specific trade within a building. This individual must be nominated by a chapter member, with the work having been completed under their observation.

The Contractor's Award is available to a licensed general contractor that has accomplished an outstanding built result while exemplifying a genuine interest in encouraging and affecting outstanding workmanship and craftsmanship on a built project. This individual must be nominated by a chapter member.

The Allied Award is available to an Allied member of the chapter, in good standing for the past two years, who has demonstrated through interest, participation and concern, dedication to the promotion and contribution to the mission of the chapter above and beyond the normally expected participation of an Allied member.

The Center for Architecture & Design
1315 East 7th Avenue Tampa, Florida 33605
813.229.3411 | www.aiatampabay.com

AIA
Tampa Bay

The Kelley Emerging Professional Award is available to an Associate or Architect member of the chapter who, while in good standing for the past two years, is less than 10 years out of school or beyond licensure, respectively. Nominees for this award shall have demonstrated exemplary service above self to champion the causes and issues of Associate members and young Architects within the chapter, local community organizations and beyond.

The Garcia Award is an annual award offered to registered architects 40 years of age or younger. The Garcia Award promotes design excellence through recognition of young architects with talent, passion and dedication; qualities for which Eduardo Garcia was known. Entry is by submission package that exhibits the entrant's work. They are due in mid-October.

AIA TAMPA BAY HONOR AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

Return to Dawn@AIATampaBay.com

Nominee: _____ Award: _____

Nominator: _____

Nominator Email: _____ Nominator Phone: _____

NOMINEE'S QUALIFICATIONS FOR AWARD (As Applicable to Award Criteria):